

Roane State Community College
Ed Tech Academy: May 12-13, 2015

Tobin, “Reaching Out to Everyone: Universal Design for Learning” Session Evaluation Results

Attendance: A:13 + B:10 + C:9 + D:11 = 43

Respondents: 43

1. This session’s information will be useful to me in my job.
2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
3. The facilitators demonstrated good presentation skills.
4. Over all, this was a good session.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this session:

- Awesome! I will definitely use!
- Change is good and necessary.
- Coming from a tech side I needed to learn what instructors need so I can facilitate them.
- Engaging. Appreciate the resources.
- Engaging. Concepts were explained well & done in a way that makes it easy to understand. Very clear.
- Excellent presentation.
- Filled my imagination!
- Gave me a lot to think about.
- Good handouts.
- Got me to think about this in a different way.
- Got new ideas for my classes. Hadn’t heard of UDL until this conference.
- Great examples and love the theme.
- Great ideas but hard to apply all to math. If presenter knows how to apply things such as “let them do it their way” to math, please add to presentation for us math folks.
- Great info.
- Great presentation!

- I enjoyed the session and hope to utilize some of these strategies in my courses. I really like the way Tom presents information.
- I got many ideas in a 1½-hour session that I can use immediately.
- Learned more specifics on UDL. Learned techniques to use in class/on D2L to reach more types of students.
- Practical, useful, engaging, motivating.
- Step by step & without a rush = increased learning & I thank you.
- Thank you for the inspiration!
- Thank you!
- There are specific examples that I will be able to incorporate into my course online.
- This information is very relevant to my job and very helpful.
- This was a great session! I have “working” ideas to start fall semester with! Very informative & engaging!
- Very informative. Love the easy breakdown. Thanks!
- Wonderful session!
- You are using all the skills of professional speaking to foster understanding and learning. Loved to watch your craft!