Distance Teaching & Learning Conference

July 25-27, 2017

Madison, Wisconsin

Hello, Thomas -

On behalf of Les Howles, Conference Director, and the entire conference staff, thank you for presenting at this year's conference. Your mini-workshop "Reach your students everywhere with Universal Design for Learning" and your information session "Getting beyond 'it depends': Copyright you can actually understand and apply" were both exceptional and truly enhanced our conference-goers' experiences. You were a valuable asset this year, and we sincerely appreciate your professionalism and willingness to do whatever was needed. We hope to see you back next year!

Sincerely,

Les Howles & the Conference Staff
