

University of South Carolina Re-CHARGE eLearning Conference
Columbia, SC – June 4, 2017

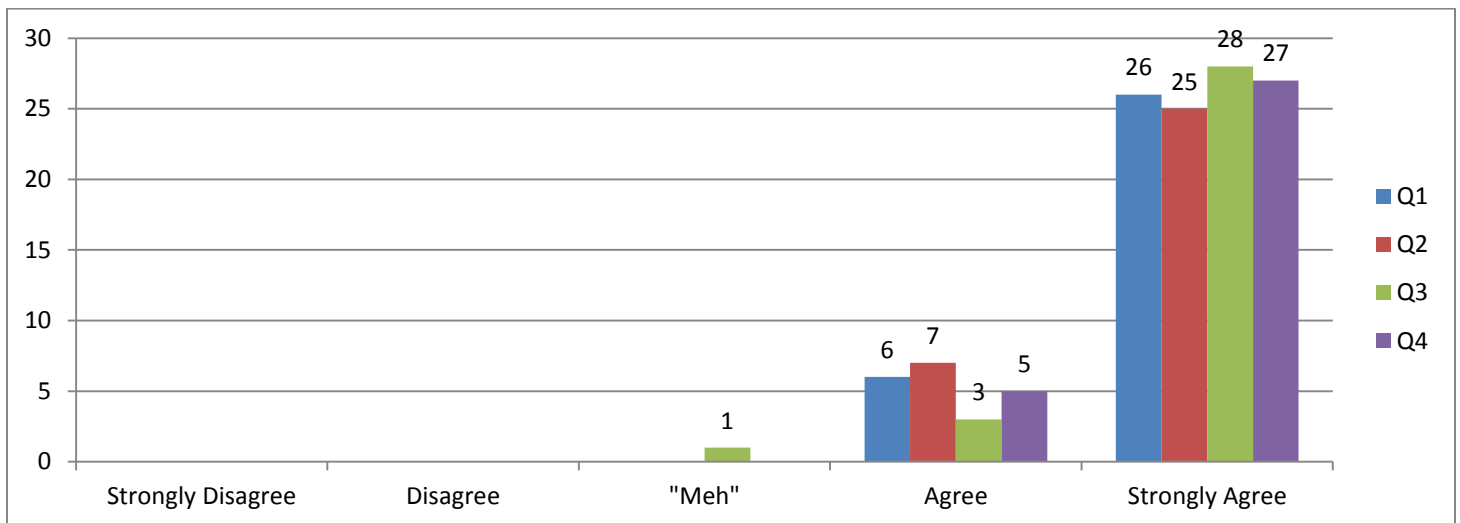

Tobin, “Hold the Phone: Designing Effective eLearning with Universal Design for Learning” Keynote

Participant Rating Results

Attendance: 35

Respondents: 32

1. This session’s information will be useful to me in my job.
2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
3. The facilitator demonstrated good presentation skills.
4. Over all, this was a good session.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this session.

- A little long intro, before core material. Not all are Star Wars students.
- A little too long to sit still. Great speaker.
- Definitely enjoyed the session. It’s always good to get more specific examples of how to implement UDL principles.
- Enjoyable, helpful.
- Excellent information for learning implementation improvement strategies.
- Good content!
- Good pace, great examples of how to start.
- Good session. Not in classroom currently but will incorporate the 5 necessities when I return.
- Good, practical advice.
- Great examples!!
- Great information and ideas. Thanks!
- Great practical solutions & ideas—that are achievable for faculty.
- Great session. Made me think of what I could change in my next class.
- I love the “just try one thing” approach!
- I think the most important part is getting the perspective of someone who has never heard of UDL & may be scared off bit it b/c of misconceptions.
- Interesting information.
- Motivational, strategic, helpful.
- Take away: aim for progress.
- Take aways: supplemental tools & ideas to share with faculty & different ways to add in the +1 strategies. Impressions: session was (as expected) engaging. Practical and thought-provoking and idea-generating.
- Terrific presentation! Good for all levels of adopters and identifies quick tools for take-aways.
- Use of phone for information. Use text with video.
- Very informative & engaging.
- Wonderful interaction. Great presentation.