

Tobin, “Re-Framing Universal Design for Learning in Higher Education” Keynote

Participant Rating Results

Attendance: 71

Respondents: 65

1. This session’s information will be useful to me in my job.
2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
3. The facilitator demonstrated good presentation skills.
4. Over all, this was a good session.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this session.

- Articulate & entertaining. Good content + presented w/UDL methods in mind.
- Clear overview of UDL for those both new + experienced w/UDL. Good, attainable strategies presented.
- Demonstrated and explained UDL: great! Liked the interaction.
- Engaging! Some great information here. I’m excited to share this with my team. Although I did know a lot of this information, but there were definitely a few tips & tricks that I haven’t thought about. If nothing else, it got me thinking quite a bit!
- Engaging, relevant, simple to continue expanding ideas and impacting students.
- Engaging. Thoughtfully delivered to maximize learning + interactivity.
- Excellent eye opener. Interesting.
- Excellent overview with clear specifics about how to think about UDL.
- Excellent presentation.
- Excellent stories. Great humor + relevance.
- Excellent!
- Fast moving with diverse presentation → keeps attention!

- Good advice, but Dr. Tobin glossed over some hard accessibility truths, such as highlighted text in a PDF does not ensure access with A[ssistive] T[echnology] and screen recordings need strong caption and audio description consideration. Contact [email address redacted] for discussion.
- Good info + good way of presenting.
- Good overall principles. I'm looking forward to a discussion of nuts and bolts + how they can be applied to different disciplines.
- Good overview. Information was very clear. Take aways + reviews very helpful.
- Good take-aways.
- Great content. I would have liked a copy of the PPT.
- Great energy. Great content. Great presentation.
- Great information and very informative.
- Great job! Star Trek is better. LLAP [live long and prosper].
- Great nuggets for someone who is just getting started in UDL.
- Great presentation & Yoda voice!!
- Great presentation!
- I am a novice and this opened my eyes to several great take-aways.
- I didn't think I knew what UDL was prior to this session. I soon realized that I not only know what it is, but I already practice it! Also, very entertaining with the Star Wars . . . my husband's going to wish he was here! 😊
- I really enjoyed this when I was able to experience it via ELI [EDUCAUSE Learning Initiative]. The "refresher" was nice, but less impactful.
- I'd rate above 5 if I could.
- Information was good; maybe a little less "Star Wars."
- Lively, practical! UDL is not scary. 😊
- Makes UDL easy to digest.
- Needs to be offered to senior administration.
- No matter how many times I hear him speak, I always end up taking something new away with me.
- Plus 1 ideology is simple, not overwhelming.
- Practical tips. Engaging speaker.
- Practical tools for success.
- Really like closing questions to ask faculty.
- Reviews of basics, enthusiasm, makes it doable.
- The information was so helpful and much "food for thought" to bring back to my campus as a Director for Disability Services.
- There was no description. Treated faculty as the opposition, the enemy. Insulting to "our colleagues" and divisive. Disappointing to observe support departments learning this condescension [sic]. Did not implement his techniques in the presentation—where was the timing? Where were the objectives. Also, no realistic understanding of the lack of resources per teacher per classroom.
- This is a great set-up for opening a conference. The most important part of this presentation was the presenter interaction prior to the session.
- This workshop contained excellent information that was presented wonderfully.
- udltheorypractice.cast.org—free book!
- Very engaging presentation. Good takeaways to bring home. Good keynote to get everyone excited & engaged.
- Very engaging, simple, and provides easy-to-implement ideas to put in practice on campus.
- Very engaging. Great take-aways.
- Very informative session and engaging. Tobin made UDL seem attainable and not overwhelming.
- Very personable—loved the Star Wars references. Made UDL much more approachable!
- Very satisfied with the information I received from Dr. T. Tobin. He was very engaging + informative. I love his sense of humor. It kept me woke!