Great detailed information that was specific to teaching behaviors vs. course design/content.

Allowed a depth of practices very tangible tools to use and consider evaluation of teaching behaviors. I have a solid understanding of where to get started with online course evaluation and criteria to start measuring 'quality.'

Good content and ideas; technical issues are challenging!

Very well executed by instructor. Great tools to look at for formal observations.

Engaging, stimulated discussion within our group!

Very good information was provided on evaluating online teaching

Very good information and ideas

All topics were concrete and very applicable to my university. The examples were very specific and compelling. I love how the assignments are university specific and that I now have an action plan to move forward.

Very clear and informative session with immediate practical application.

great information! thought provoking :)

While I greatly appreciated the info on evaluation of online teaching we registered for this seminar in the hope that it would also cover evaluation of online course design

Many practical, concrete strategies we can use

So much info that will be helpful as we look to find ways to provide feedback to our faculty!

Very helpful, but I'd love more "handouts"
