Dear Tom,

Many thanks of appreciation for your outstanding and entertaining three hour presentation on January 9 to our faculty within the School of Health Professions at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center. Your discussion about universal design and copyright law was insightful and educational. Aside from the glowingly positive evaluations of your presentation, many faculty have subsequently told me that they have implemented your ideas into their face-to-face and online courses. This was faculty development at its best.

Thanks again for sharing your ideas, tips, wisdom and experience with us. Our students will be the ultimate beneficiaries.

Best regards,
Steve
