- I learned quite a bit but the presentation could have been more concise and to the point. Also, excessive Star Wars references.
- Great tips of incorporating technology → showed in presentation. Entertaining speaker (Star Wars theme was fun).
- A good start for my thoughts—now for some formulations.
- Perfect topic; good ideas. A few new ones for me to implement. New technology ideas. Energetic speaker! Passionate. Probably could do it in a shorter amount of time, or same time with more depth + breadth. Good handout with key points. Action based worksheet.
- Great ideas, presented in an accessible way.
- Well prepared with back information to bring out ideas for presentation. I felt that the Detroit Metro demographics made the presentation more pertinent to persons listening to the lecture.
- Top notch. Well done. More faculty should have been invited to fill empty seats.
- One of the best presentations I have attended. Thank you to the presenter, & thank you OTL for organizing. The strategies were extremely useful. My expectations were exceeded. The speaker demonstrated amazing presentation skills. This was an excellent keynote.
- Even though I have never been a STAR WARS follower, I may be interested in it now. The presentation was extremely engaging & all the information is extremely relevant in any instruction setting (not only class room). Thank you!
- It was a good keynote overall. What would be really great if OTL could share how to use the text/function within Canvas and easy video upload functions as a follow-up after today’s presentation.
- This presenter was excellent at engaging us while modeling good teaching style.
- This is new information for me—well worth my time to attend!
- Valuable, helpful, and entertaining.

- Excellent.
